FURTHER SUPPLEMENT TO JOINT REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Carolina K. Powley d/b/a Unicorn Slide ("US") and Trudy M. Mitchell ("Mitchell") (collectively "Petitioners"), by their attorneys, hereby supplement their Joint Request for Approval of Settlement Agreement. In support thereof, Petitioners state the following:

On February 1, 1993, US and Mitchell filed a Joint Request for Approval of Settlement Agreement in the above-captioned proceeding. Pursuant to that Agreement, US would dismiss its application in return for monetary consideration. Supplements to that Joint Request were filed on February 17 and 26 and March 5, 1993. Attached hereto is another Supplement to the Joint Request, consisting of two signed statements by Trudy Mitchell.

In view of the foregoing, Petitioners respectfully request that the Presiding Officer approve their Settlement Agreement and, upon such approval, dismiss the application of US with prejudice, grant the application of Mitchell and terminate the above-captioned proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

SUPPLEMENT TO SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

The purpose of this statement is to supplement that Settlement Agreement filed with the Commission on February 1, 1993. Section 3 of that Settlement Agreement states that Trudy Mitchell ("Mitchell") shall pay the sum of $35,000.00 to Caroline K. Powley d/b/a Unicorn Slide ("US") as a settlement amount in this case. Section 5 of the Settlement Agreement provides that, in the event that the FCC fails to permit reimbursement of all of US' expenses, US shall have the right to seek reconsideration and/or review of that ruling.

The purpose of this supplement is to clarify the above language. US has incurred over $35,000.00 in prudent and legitimate expenses in filing and prosecuting its application and settling this comparative proceeding and desires to be reimbursed for those expenses. It is the intent of US that it receive full reimbursement of its expenses up to $35,000.00 and that, in the event that the Commission or its delegatee fails to initially permit reimbursement of all of those expenses, that US have the right, although not the obligation, to seek reconsideration and/or review of that ruling. As noted, notwithstanding the language in Section 5 of the Settlement Agreement, it is not the intent of the parties that US have the legal obligation to seek such reconsideration and/or review. Moreover, whether or not US chooses to seek reconsideration and/or review or is successful in such a petition filed with the Commission, it is the intent of the parties that US receive reimbursement for those expenses which the Commission or its delegatee determines are legitimate and prudent with respect to the filing and prosecution of its application and settlement of this proceeding even if that amount is ultimately determined to be less than $35,000.00.

FURTHER SUPPLEMENT TO SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This will further clarify that Settlement Agreement between Trudy Mitchell ("Mitchell") and Caroline K. Powley d/b/a Unicorn Slide ("US") filed with the Commission on February 1, 1993. It is the intent of the Parties that Mitchell reimburse US for its legitimate and prudent expenses incurred in filing and prosecuting its application and settling this comparative proceeding to a maximum amount of $35,000.00. It is understood that the Presiding Officer may, in approving the Settlement, approve a lesser amount than $35,000.00. In such case where the Settlement Agreement has been approved and Mitchell's application granted, but an amount less than $35,000.00 has been approved, US will have the right, but not the obligation to appeal that action. As noted earlier, it is the intent of the Parties that US only receive that reimbursement for its expenses which is legitimate and prudent with respect to filing and prosecuting its application and settling this proceeding, even if that amount is ultimately determined to be less than $35,000.00.
